Summer Production

W/B 7th June 2010

"These You Have Loved"

You are all invited to a society meeting re the summer soiree. Anyone who is interested in having their say, sharing their ideas and wants to be involved in any way is asked to attend – Roy wants us all to get together to try to make plans. If you can't make it, please let Roy know.

Wednesday 31st March at the Bowls Club 7.30

Keyworth Show

No one responded to my plea in the Feb edition for you to let me know if you're free to help with the Keyworth Show on 10th July. Not sure what we'll do yet, depends who's free.

An unmissable opportunity for a day out.

Fancy a day of congenial company, art galleries, sight seeing? Why not take a friend to London for the day on 26th May for only £15.50. Be quick though, as only 8 coach tickets are left. Leave Keyworth 8.30am return 7pm. All money for the London trip should be paid by 30th April. Contact Jim.

Birthday Dinner

Come and celebrate our 40th birthday at the Indian Nights Restaurant on 3rd July.

It would be great if everyone came, partners are welcome, as are past members. £16.50 per head for a 2 course buffet – veggie and English food available. We'll have our own room with a private bar. You need to commit to and pay for this now please, so let Jean Allton know if you plan to come.

New Perspectives Theatre are coming to Keyworth on Saturday 7th April with a production of "Those Magnificent Men". The production is being put on by Keyworth Arts at the Village Hall, and tickets cost £7, available from Jill Widdowson.

Future Productions

In the autumn, Jean Allton will direct "Ladies Down Under", by Amanda Whittington.

Any suggestions for spring 2011 productions or offers to direct gratefully accepted. Contact any committee member.

If you haven't popped up to the library to view the display, it'll be there until 30th April.

Well done to Jim and the other representatives of the society who did well in the village quiz, beating the Probus. Luckily they were knocked out last Monday by the BGS brain boxes, as the semi finals are on Monday 22nd. Erm... is there something else going on then?

Tax-payers: Have you asked Colin for a "Gift Aid" form? KDS can claim 20% tax back on your subs.
